

Case

Initial Presentation

- Ms. Pane is a 33 year old female presenting with about one day of abdominal cramping, nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea. She is complaining of insomnia.
- The patient has a history of IVDU currently receiving MAT with methadone.
- Three days ago, she was started on rifampin by ID as part of combination therapy for staph endocarditis.

Case

Physical Exam

- Vitals: Pulse: 118; Resp: 24; SpO2: 93% on RA
- Gen: Uncomfortable, beads of sweat on face.
- HEENT: PEERL 5mm b/l
- CV: Tachycardic w/o MRG
- Pulm: CTAB

